

DAVID SAHARGUN ELECTED PARTNER

Grant, Herrmann, Schwartz & Klinger is pleased to announce the election of David Sahargun to the position of Partner.

“David’s expertise developing sophisticated wealth management structures and advising on U.S. and international tax compliance matters has added another dimension to our already significant private client practice,” said Partner Milton Schwartz. “He will, I am sure, continue to be a great asset to the firm, which is now in its 70th year.”

David counsels high-net-worth individuals, family offices and fiduciary companies in the areas of international tax and estate planning. His practice includes structuring foreign investment in U.S. real estate, developing wealth transfer structures for multinational families and assisting clients with voluntary disclosure and other tax regularization proceedings with the Internal Revenue Service. David also advises on pre-immigration and pre-departure tax planning, and counsels clients regarding their tax compliance obligations under the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) and Common Reporting Standard (CRS).

David earned his Juris Doctor from American University, Master in Corporate Law (Master en Derecho de la Empresa) from Universidad Pontificia Comillas in Madrid, Spain, and Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from the University of California, Berkeley. David has also taken legal courses at the Universidad de Buenos Aires, Universidad de Chile and Universidad Diego Portales.
